Tel: (+852) 2869 6325

Michael's practice encompasses civil and commercial litigation, with a particular focus on construction, commercial and securities disputes, as well as arbitration. He is a co-author of Construction Law and Practice in Hong Kong and regularly speaks at CPD seminars and lectures on contract and construction law. He also advises and appears in property, winding-up, bankruptcy and IPO-related matters, and is regularly instructed in interlocutory applications.

Michael is frequently instructed on institutional and ad hoc arbitrations, both by solicitors and on a direct access basis. He is a Fellow of CIArb and on the HKIAC List of Arbitrators. His construction and commercial dispute experience includes major infrastructure projects, aviation sales and leasing, and securities services arrangements involving real property developers, Macau casinos, listed companies, and licensed sponsors.

Michael is developing a broad civil and criminal practice. On the criminal side, he has experience conducting trials across a range of offences, including theft, assault, dealing with proceeds of crime, drug-related offences and road traffic matters.

Michael served his pupillage with Mr. Gary Soo at Gary Soo's Chambers, Mr. Richard Leung at Des Voeux Chambers, and Ms. Catherine Wong and Mr. Clement Lau at Plowman Chambers.

Michael is fluent in Cantonese, English and Mandarin, and has experience drafting legal documents in Chinese.
