More details are at <https://www.legal500.com/c/hong-kong-bar/construction-and-property>.

Gary Soo's Chambers was first set up in 2004, with the focus on areas of civil litigation involving commercial and construction disputes, arbitration and other forms of dispute resolution. Our practice has by now expanded to include other areas of laws for the needs of our clients.

With the launch of the ADR Annex as the virtual platform to provide online and on-site support, we are operating wholly virtually and are accessible globally.
